and to the Republic for which it stands,
one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

The United States flag has 50 stars and 13 stripes.

The stars signify what? _____

The stripes signify what? _____

National Anthem "The Star Spangled Banner" (first stanza)

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Who broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

(This song was written by Francis Scott Key, an American being held captive on a British warship during the battle of Fort McHenry during the War of 1812.)
